

Newsletter Policy

(adopted and effective September 11, 2008)

THE GVR NEWSLETTER

The GVR NEWSLETTER is published by the Master Homeowners Association for Green Valley Ranch. The Association, as publisher, does not necessarily endorse the companies, products or services advertised in THE GVR NEWSLETTER, and the opinions and information presented in the articles and advertorials represent the view of the author or source and do not necessarily reflect the position or view of the Association, the Board of Directors or the management of the Association.

The GVR NEWSLETTER is published by the Board of Directors for the benefit of Green Valley Ranch residents and dedicated to: fostering communication and collaboration among the residents, Board of Directors and management of the Association; promoting Green Valley Ranch's numerous and diverse activities; and informing residents of community resources and issues.

Editor

The Board of Directors shall use an Editor to provide a monthly newsletter production as well as special editions when deemed necessary by the Board. The GVR NEWSLETTER shall be published at a time during the month so as to be most effective and informative.

The Editor shall prepare and assemble the newsletter copy for publication and shall provide professional expertise in layout, presentation, information and shall refine content to conform to a standard or particular purpose established by the Board. The Editor will work together with management of the Association and the President of the Board to prepare for publication the newsletters, with the understanding that the Board will provide certain information and/or articles to be included in the newsletter. Any questionable material submitted to the editor must be approved by the President of the Board before inclusion in the newsletter. The Editor will make every reasonable attempt to publish the newsletter by the date established by the President of the Board.

Letters to the Editor

Letters submitted to the Association are published at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Letters shall be no longer than 200 words and are subject to editing by the Board for accuracy and obvious factual inaccuracies; unattributed facts and quotes; relevance to the community; libelous statements or slander to the Association, Board of Directors, management of the Association or Editor; and content for space. All submitted letters must include the writer's name, address, telephone number and signature for verification purposes. The writer's name will be included with those letters that are published, will be selected at the discretion of the Board and published on a space available basis.

Advertising

The Master Homeowners Association for Green Valley Ranch, its Board of Directors, Editor, and management of the Association are not responsible or liable for any of the services or products advertised in The GVR NEWSLETTER, nor do they endorse any advertisement, product or service. The Association recommends that readers thoroughly research any product or service and check references prior to hiring any individual or company.

The Newsletter contains paid advertising for products and/or services as well as announcements for upcoming informational meetings, workshops or seminars related to commercial products or services that are conducted by outside individuals or groups not affiliated with the Master Homeowners Association for Green Valley Ranch. The reader should be aware that the products or services discussed or offered during such meetings are not endorsed, sponsored, or approved by the Board of Directors or management of the Association, nor is your attendance necessarily encouraged. Residents who attend such meetings are urged to carefully research the product or services that may be offered through these meetings before entering into any agreement or contract to purchase.

Advertising shall be paid in full by the submittal deadline for publication. Upon payment of advertising or announcements, the Advertiser understands and agrees that the Association shall make every attempt to publish The GVR NEWSLETTER by the date established by the Association, and shall hold the Association harmless for any publication delays. Furthermore, the Advertiser understands and agrees that the Association's liability for not publishing paid advertising or announcements shall be limited to a refund of actual advertising paid. The management for the Association shall make every effort to accommodate advertisers, when delays, cancellations or omissions occur.
